Q- How to check kundali match for marriage?

Kundali matching is checked by comparing the birth charts of two people using their date, time, and place of birth. It examines elements such as compatibility, planetary positions and Guna Milan. For deeper understanding, consulting Lunar Astro can help interpret the results correctly.

Q- Is kundli match important for marriage?

Kundli matching is considered a traditional way to understand marriage compatibility, emotional bonding, and possible challenges. It should be used as guidance, not the only decision factor. Lunar Astro Consultation can provide a balanced analysis of your kundli match.

Q- How accurate is kundli matching for marriage?

Kundli matching accuracy depends on the quality of birth details and the astrologer's interpretation. It can provide insights about compatibility but cannot guarantee marriage success. For a detailed and personalized view, Lunar Astro guidance can help you understand your match better.

Q- How to do kundali matching by date of birth?

To match kundali by date of birth, you need both partners' birth date, exact birth time, and birthplace. These details are used to create and compare birth charts. Lunar Astro can help analyze the kundli match with proper astrological methods.

Q- How to do kundali matching by name?

Kundali matching by name is a simplified method based on names or zodiac calculations. However, accurate matching usually requires birth details. For reliable compatibility insights, consulting Lunar Astro is recommended to understand the complete horoscope.

Q- What is the minimum score for kundli matching?

In traditional Guna Milan, a score of 18 out of 36 is often considered the minimum acceptable match. However, other horoscope factors also matter. Lunar Astro consultation can help check the complete kundli beyond just the score.

Q- What does kundli matching tell about marriage compatibility?

Kundli matching shows possible compatibility between partners, including emotional connection, communication, family harmony, and relationship challenges. It gives guidance based on planetary positions. Lunar Astro can help explain these factors in a simple and practical way.

Q- How to do free online kundli match for marriage?

Free online kundli matching tools usually require birth details to generate compatibility scores. These tools give basic information, but detailed interpretation needs expert analysis. Lunar Astro consultation can provide deeper insights about your marriage compatibility.

Q- Which is better: kundli match by name or date of birth?

Kundli matching by date of birth is generally considered more accurate because it uses complete birth details and planetary positions. Name matching gives only basic results. Lunar Astro can help you understand the complete compatibility report.

Q- What is kundali milan and how does it work?

Kundali Milan is the process of comparing two birth charts before marriage. It checks Guna Milan, planetary influences, and relationship factors. Lunar Astro can guide you through the process and explain what the matching results actually mean.

Q- How many gunas should match for marriage?

According to traditional astrology, at least 18 out of 36 gunas are usually considered suitable for marriage. Higher scores may indicate better compatibility, but other factors are important too. Lunar Astro consultation can help evaluate the full kundli.

Q- What if kundli does not match for marriage?

A low kundli match score does not always mean marriage is impossible. Other planetary factors, personal understanding, and circumstances should also be considered. Lunar Astro can help analyze the complete horoscope and provide clarity about the situation.

Q- Is kundli matching necessary in love marriage?

Kundli matching is optional in love marriages but can provide insights about compatibility, future challenges, and relationship dynamics. Many couples use it as guidance. Lunar Astro consultation can help understand the horoscope aspects of a love marriage.

Q- How to read kundli match points?

Kundli match points are calculated through Guna Milan, where different factors represent compatibility areas. The total score shows basic matching, but individual planetary positions also matter. Lunar Astro can help explain each point and its impact on marriage.

Q- What is horoscope matching for marriage?

Horoscope matching is another name for kundli matching, where two birth charts are compared before marriage. It helps understand compatibility, strengths, and possible challenges in a relationship. Lunar Astro guidance can help interpret horoscope matching in a meaningful way.
